Upon such a determination, Roundit will notify the partner via electronic communications and will suspend the partner's account. Furthermore, Roundit will remove any and all content associated with the partner from our portal and will not long accept donations to the affected organization or individual.

If Roundit determines that a partner is engaged in, supports or encourages hate speech, any and all funds held by roundit on behalf of the partner will be returned to the donors, minus any credit card processing fees charged to roundit by our credit card processing partners.
